

Rajesh Sahni, has been associated with Dish TV since 2010 and is presently designated as Corporate Head - Service Support & Infrastructure with the Company. In his current role, he is responsible for driving excellence in field service operations for both the brands of the Company, conceptualizing and design service processes, define Network requirement for desired service delivery, audit service processes and build sustainable service infrastructure. He has been instrumental in setting up customer service network across the country and effectively handled Call Center Operations. Prior to joining Dish TV, he was associated with companies like LG, Canon, Nokia, Electrolux. During his last stint he was working with Sony Ericsson Mobile Communications as Head of Customer Service, India Operations. He has more than 33 years of experience in Customer & Field Services.

Mr. Sahni is an Engineer in Electronics and Telecommunications.